

International Guild of Realism Award Winners

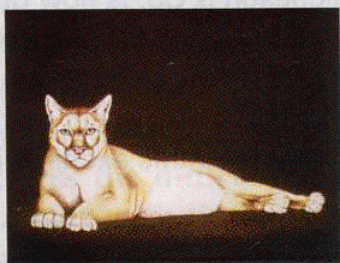

The Pan American Art Gallery, in Dallas, recently hosted its first exhibition of works from the International Guild of Realism. Attracting one of the largest audiences ever to attend an exhibition at the gallery, the show featured works from the guild's worldwide membership, which includes portraitists, landscape painters, and still-life artists. Among the award-winning artists were Duffy Sheridan, who won Director's Choice for his Self-portrait; Isabelle du Toit, who won the Gold Medal Award for Mountain Lion; and Albino Hinojosa, whose piece The Dipper won Artists' Choice.
